

WHEN WOMEN SEE CLEARLY™

THE 20-MINUTE CLARITY SPRINT

A quick, scripture-anchored guide to surface the God-given vision already inside you—so you can write it, own it, and begin to build.

"Write the vision; make it plain on tablets, so he may run who reads it." — Habakkuk 2:2 (ESV)

You'll finish with a one-sentence Vision Statement you can place on your AH-HA Moments Vision Board. <https://ah-hamoments.com>

WHAT VISION IS (AND ISN'T)

Before we dive into uncovering your vision, let's get crystal clear on what we're actually looking for. Understanding the difference between vision and goals will save you time and frustration.

VISION IS

- A calling, not a to-do
- The future you're assigned to build
- Something that blesses beyond you
- Endures through time (10+ years)
- Organizes your goals

VISION ISN'T

- An errand to complete
- Something private or self-serving
- Something that expires quickly
- A single goal or task
- Something you can finish in a weekend

LITMUS TEST

If it only benefits you, or can be finished in a weekend, it's a goal. If it transforms others and would still matter in a decade, you're looking at vision.

Reflection Space: What's one thing you've been calling "vision" that might actually be a goal?

THE 20-MINUTE SPRINT OVERVIEW

Set a timer for four minutes per step. Write quickly. Don't edit—revelation often shows up in motion.

01

IDENTITY (4 MIN)

Who am I—by design? List God-given strengths, patterns, and what people consistently come to you for.

02

HOLY BURDEN (4 MIN)

What breaks your heart or lights a righteous fire? Where do you feel compelled to make things right?

03

PEOPLE (4 MIN)

Who specifically benefits? Describe the woman, family, or community your life will serve.

04

OUTCOME (4 MIN)

If your vision succeeds, what changes in their world? Describe the transformation and fruit.

05

STRATEGY SEED (4 MIN)

How might you begin? List 1–3 Spirit-led ways you could start building.

PRO TIP

Don't overthink this! Your first instincts are often Holy Spirit nudges. Trust what comes up quickly.

Before you start, pray: "Lord, reveal what You had in mind when You formed me. Show me the assignment I'm to build for Your glory and the good of others."

STEP 1: IDENTITY (4 MINUTES)

"For we are God's handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do." — Ephesians 2:10 (NIV)

"Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms.

— 1 Peter 4:10 (NIV)

Who am I—by design? List God-given strengths, patterns, & what people consistently come to you for.

My God-given strengths:

Patterns I see in my life (what keeps showing up?):

What do people consistently come to me for?

What energizes me most?

STUCK? TRY THIS

Ask 3 close friends: "What do you see as my greatest strengths?" or "When have you seen me most alive and effective?"

STEP 2: HOLY BURDEN (4 MINUTES)

"When I heard these things, I sat down and wept. For some days I mourned and fasted and prayed before the God of heaven." — Nehemiah 1:4 (NIV)

"The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me, Because the Lord has anointed and commissioned me To bring good news to the humble and afflicted..." — Isaiah 61:1 (AMP)

What breaks your heart or lights a righteous fire? Where do you feel compelled to make things right?

What injustices or problems make you angry or sad?

If you could fix one thing in the world, what would it be?

What stories on the news or in your community move you to action?

Where do you think, "Someone should do something about this!"?

REMEMBER

Your holy burden often points to your assignment. What breaks God's heart often breaks yours too.

STEP 3: PEOPLE (4 MINUTES)

"Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others." — Philippians 2:4 (ESV)

Who specifically benefits? Describe the person or community your life will serve.

Describe your ideal person to serve (be specific!):

Age: _____ Life stage: _____

Challenges they face: _____

What does a typical day look like for them?

What keeps them up at night (their fears/worries)?

What are their dreams and hopes?

Where do you encounter these people now?

GET SPECIFIC

The more specific you can be about who you serve, the clearer your vision becomes.
Think of one real person who represents this group.

STEP 4: OUTCOME (4 MINUTES)

"In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven." — Matthew 5:16 (ESV)

If your vision succeeds, what changes in their world? Describe the transformation and fruit.

How will their lives be different because of your work?

What will they be able to do that they couldn't do before?

How will their families/communities benefit?

What legacy will this create for future generations?

How will God be glorified through this transformation?

THINK BIG

Don't limit yourself to what seems "realistic." What would happen if God showed up in power through your obedience?

STEP 5: STRATEGY SEED (4 MINUTES)

"Roll your works upon the Lord [commit and trust them wholly to Him; He will cause your thoughts to become agreeable to His will, and] so shall your plans be established and succeed." — Proverbs 16:3 (AMPC)

How might you begin? List 1–3 Spirit-led ways you could start building.

What's one small step you could take this week?

What resources or skills do you already have?

Who could you partner with or learn from?

ONE-SENTENCE BUILDER

Use this formula to draft, then refine:

📌 I am called to [build/do/serve what] for [who] so that [transformation] by [how].

Examples:

- I am called to awaken purpose in working moms so that families flourish, by designing simple Spirit-led tools they can use in 20 minutes a day.
- I am called to mentor first-gen college girls into STEM careers so that generational ceilings break, by building a faith-anchored internship pipeline.

Draft your version below. Write messy—clarity comes in revision.

AI CLARITY PARTNER

Stuck while writing your vision? Try asking AI to reflect back what's inside you.

"I want to articulate my God-given vision. Based on my gifts in [list 2–3 strengths], my passions for [list causes/people you care about], and the burdens I carry for [list what breaks your heart], give me 5 ways I could serve others that would leave a lasting legacy."

Other quick prompts:

- "Turn this messy brainstorm into a one-sentence vision statement."
- "Show me examples of women in history who lived out a vision like mine."
- "Give me a list of first tiny steps I could take to start building toward this."

👉 Use these not as answers, but as mirrors to reveal what God has already planted in you. James 1:5 (NIV) If any of you lacks wisdom, you should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to you.
